BIS Library Wins Rajbhasha Shield during Hindi Week Celebration

The Bureau of Indian Standards (BIS) Library actively participated in the “Rajbhasha Hindi Week” celebrations held to promote the use of Hindi as the official language. Hindi Week, also known as Hindi Saptah, is observed every year around Hindi Diwas on September 14, marking the day when Hindi was adopted as the official language of India.

During the week-long celebration, various activities and competitions were organized to encourage the use of Hindi in official work and to foster greater appreciation for the language. The BIS Library staff enthusiastically took part in these events and showcased outstanding performance in promoting the use of Hindi in their day-to-day work.

In recognition of their sincere efforts and excellent contribution toward the implementation of Rajbhasha in official functioning, the BIS Library was awarded the prestigious Rajbhasha Shield. This achievement highlights the Library's commitment to upholding and promoting Hindi as a medium of communication and knowledge dissemination within the organization.
